

Vista Kushesh, M.A., NCSP

Vista is a nationally certified school psychologist who received her degree from Loyola Marymount University. She completed part of her program at Columbia University in New York where she gained several years of experience working with significantly at-risk students of all ages. Upon her return to California, she joined the C4L team where she is proud to identify with their mission to serve as true child advocates. In addition to her role as an educational psychologist for C4L, Vista is currently serving as a site coordinator for St. Mary's School. One of her greatest passions includes supporting students' emotional wellbeing through social skills counseling and empowering mindfulness groups.
