

Wendy Roberts, M.A., SLP Speech and Language Pathologist and Director of Assessment Services

Wendy Roberts is a Speech and Language Pathologist . She received her Master's Degree and Clinical Rehabilitative Services Credential in 1988 from San Diego State University. She has extensive experience with children and adolescents who have language and learning disabilities. Mrs. Roberts has been providing speech and language assessments as well as directing all assessment services at C4L since she joined the staff in 2002.